What are the Model Principal Supervisor Professional Standards 2015?

• A practical description of what principal supervisors should know and be able to do
• Voluntary and adaptable
• Aligned with the Professional Standards for Educational Leaders 2015
• Grounded in a Theory of Action focused on student learning and achievement
• All standards are integrated to work together
Why Are Standards for Principal Supervisors Needed?

1. Emerging research suggests principal supervisors can help principals improve teaching and student achievement.
2. But today principal supervisors often focus on ensuring compliance with local and state regulations.
3. Principals face new pressures to improve student learning and implement new academic standards.
4. The Model Standards will help districts ensure that principal supervisors focus on the actions that matter.
Category 1: Educational Leadership

• Standard 1. Principal Supervisors dedicate their time to helping principals grow as instructional leaders.

• Standard 2. Principal Supervisors coach and support individual principals and engage in effective professional learning strategies to help principals grow as instructional leaders.
Category 1: Educational Leadership

• Standard 3. Principal Supervisors use evidence of principals’ effectiveness to determine necessary improvements in principals’ practice to foster a positive educational environment that supports the diverse cultural and learning needs of students.

• Standard 4. Principal Supervisors engage principals in the formal district principal evaluation process in ways that help them grow as instructional leaders.
Category 2: District Operations

• Standard 5. Principal Supervisors advocate for and inform the coherence of organizational vision, policies and strategies to support schools and student learning.

• Standard 6. Principal Supervisors assist the district in ensuring the community of schools with which they engage are culturally/socially responsive and have equitable access to resources necessary for the success of each student.
Category 3: District Leadership

• Standard 7. Principal Supervisors engage in their own development and continuous improvement to help principals grow as instructional leaders.

• Standard 8. Principal Supervisors lead strategic change that continuously elevates the performance of schools and sustains high-quality educational programs and opportunities across the district.
Polling Question
Principal Supervisor Initiative

- $30 Million dollar investment in a five-year effort
- 14 urban school districts
- Core districts: Long Beach, Calif., Des Moines, Iowa, Broward County, Fla., Minneapolis, Cleveland, and DeKalb County, GA.
- Initiative finances training and support for Principal Supervisors
- Two other districts will join the group, Tulsa, Ok., and Washington, D.C.
- Funding is also provided to the six districts in the Principal Pipeline Initiative:
  - Charlotte-Mecklenberg, N.C., Denver, Gwinnett County, GA., Hillsborough County, Fla., New York City and Prince Georges County, MD.
Lessons Learned So Far:

• The development of the Principal Supervisor Standards is the benchmark tool for school districts to use as an effective strategy to re-define principal supervision.
• Districts are starting to see ‘dramatic’ effects when the position is focused on teaching and learning.
• Central Office Transformation occurs which builds on the support to principals and schools.
• We envision principals staying longer in their positions when they see that they are valued and have the instructional coaching to do their job.

Superintendent
Standard #1: Principal Supervisors dedicate their time to helping principals grow as instructional leaders

- Redesign the Job Responsibilities of a Principal
- Non-Negotiable District-wide Instructional Goals
- Principal Leadership Team Norms and Learning Objectives
- Mutually Agreed Upon Definition of Consensus
High School District 214 - Implementation Strategy

• Focused PD around Instructional Leadership

• Modeling for Principals a focus on Instructional Leadership... Move beyond the day-to-day minutiae that can consume a principal’s day and give them permission to dream and lead from an instructional perspective

• Give Principals permission to fail... learning from a successful failure can be incredibly instructive

Discussion about the film clip

After you have identified your own assumptions, aspirations, actions, and practices, look again at those in the film clip, “Shaping a Vision of Academic Success for All Students.”

In small groups, share thoughts, reactions, and interpretations using questions below to guide discussions. Be prepared to debrief salient points discussed with the larger group.

1. How do visionary leaders challenge the status quo?

2. Tresa is a novice principal and Kerry is a veteran. How might different levels of experience affect principals’ abilities to enact change within their schools?
Shaping a Vision of Academic Success for Principal Practices

Key Practice 4: Improving Instruction

1. Focusing Instructional Improvement: Principals Niki Brown and Deirdre Keyes build instructional leadership capacity among teaching and administrative staff in order to improve student outcomes. If the adult learning is on behalf of student learning, how should instructional leaders figure out where to focus professional development time and resources?

2. Exploring Mental Models of Leadership: For instructional council meetings, Principal Niki Brown is described by one of the school’s instructional lead teachers as “there to guide us but she doesn’t necessarily lead the meeting.” When should principals lead meetings, when should they be participants, when should they be observers, and when should they not attend at all? What are the potential implications of how a principal does or does not participate in a meeting for (a) the staff’s sense of ownership and decision-making authority, (b) the willingness of staff to share openly and honestly (c) the perception of the principal’s knowledge and authority, (d) accountability for professional practice?
