Join the AASA/USC Rossier Urban Superintendents Academy

Become the leader our nation needs

A dynamic nine-month blended program—delivered online and in-person—designed to equip a cadre of school leaders with the skills and knowledge necessary to lead a large urban school district.

Led by the Superintendent Faculty of the USC Rossier School of Education

Application: aasa.org/content.aspx?id=37483
Information: rossier.usc.edu | 213.740.7775
The AASA/USC Rossier Urban Superintendents Academy

APPLY NOW
for the 2016-17 Cohort
August, 2016—June, 2017

Designed for individuals who aspire to lead school districts serving large urban areas.
- Current superintendents of small to medium-sized districts
- Deputy, associate or assistant superintendents of urban districts
- Experienced leaders who want to prepare for a career as an urban superintendent

Within the context of the urban district, graduates of this program will be able to:
- Learn how to engage the community and lead courageous conversations about equity within the organization and with outside constituents
- Use creativity and strategy to address critical problems and issues
- Deal effectively and creatively with community relations and politics
- Effectively work with appointed and elected boards of education

The Academy’s Distinguishing Features
- Blended delivery model based on the success of USC Rossier’s award-winning online degree programs
- Active participation and engagement with cohort colleagues who are the nation’s future leaders in the urban education arena
- A certificate of program completion jointly awarded by USC Rossier and AASA

Program Tuition of $7,700*, includes:
- Hotel and meals for the three days in residence at the USC University Park Campus
- Course materials
- A one-year membership in AASA
- Eligibility to attend the 2017 AASA National Conference on Education (NCE) in New Orleans at the student rate
- Certificate issued jointly by USC Rossier and AASA and awarded at the 2018 NCE and a transcript for continuing education units issued by USC Rossier
- Access to all USC Rossier online workshops and seminars

* A payment plan is available.

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR APPLICATION MATERIALS

Call or Email Today:
Colleen Dietz
Program Administrator
213.740.7775 or cdietz@usc.edu

Application: aasa.org/content.aspx?id=37483
Information: rossier.usc.edu | 213.740.7775