A Collaborative for Innovation and Transformational Leadership
Summer Conference
July 19 - 21, 2016

Essential questions:
• What is the necessary innovation that we need to focus on to transform the culture?
• What are the necessary dispositions of leadership that must be transparent to build the transformative culture?
• How do we make certain that we are attending to issues of equity in all that we do to lead the communities into a transformed culture?

July 19
5pm–6pm  Welcome and opening discussion - Mort Sherman

6-7:30am  Dinner

• Conversation with Madeline Levine  [http://madelinelevine.com/]

  “Teach Your Children Well; The Price of Privilege”

• Please read excerpt: [http://madelinelevine.com/the-price-of-privilege-exerpt/]

• Essential Question: How do we work in bi-modal communities where we have children with privilege and children from considerably less privileged circumstances?

7:30pm – 9:30pm  Naviance Welcome Reception

July 20
Breakfast
8:15am – 9:55am  Naviance Keynote (Madeline Levine)

10am – 4pm  Collaborative Convening
  Bena Kallick and Heidi Hayes Jacobs, Facilitators
• Innovation—where are we going and what are the necessary dispositions for kids, teachers, the culture.
  Leslie Boozer, Superintendent, Fontana, CA.

• Case study on her bi-modal district and the issues that she has been facing with social media being the voice of the dissension.
  Stacy Scott, Superintendent Framingham, MA

• Alternative assessments.  How does changing the assessments change the work of innovation?

Discussion and interaction.

4pm to 5pm Naviance Happy Hour

July 21
Breakfast
8am – 12pm

• Leadership skills to attend to transformation.
  Bena and Heidi

• Jill Gildea
  Superintendent, Fremont School District 79, IL
  A. Entry point of redesigning space
  B. Using EduPlanet for extended learning

• Using the consultancy model to visit districts
  Mort Sherman

• Next steps