

FourC Bilingual Academy

BRAZIL

EdLeader PROMISE
ANNUAL EVENT
An AASA Network Event

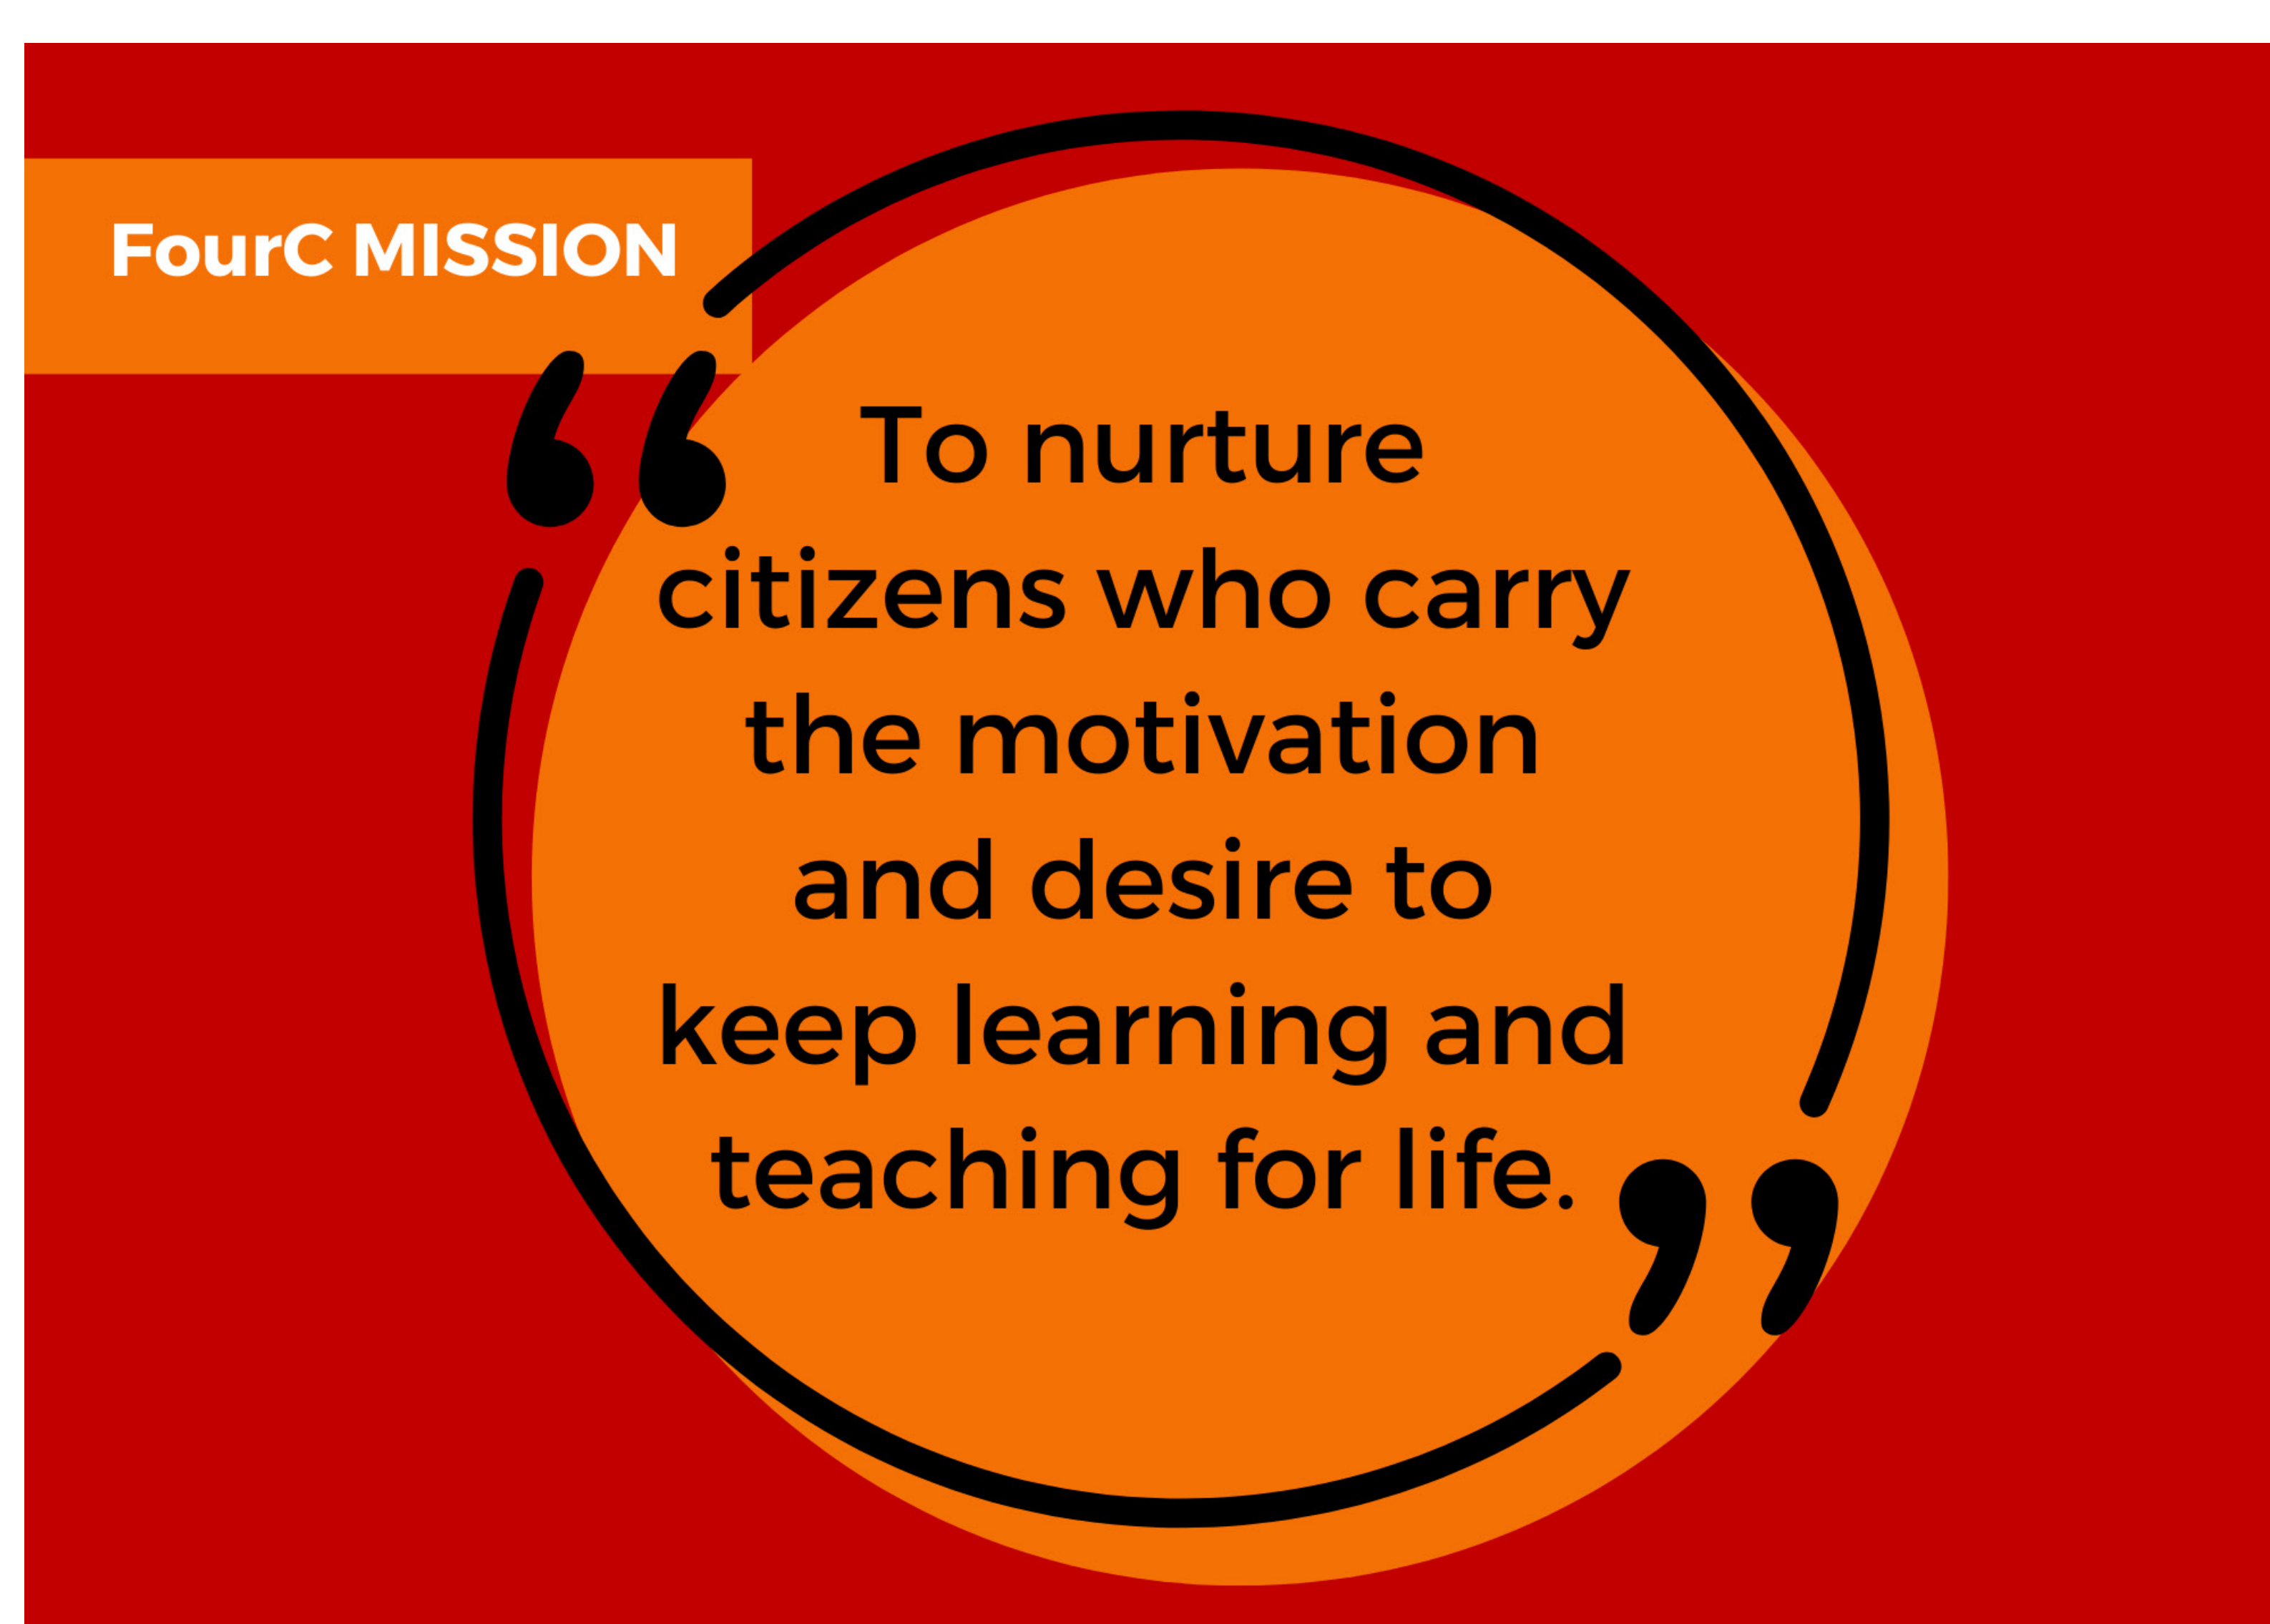

Portrait to Practice

- Student-led and collective projects (PBL, STEM Racing, social action).
- Active methodologies & thinking routines (Harvard Project Zero).
- Dual certification: Brazilian curriculum + Missouri High School program.
- Professional learning in innovation, bilingual pedagogy, and visible thinking.
- SEL and citizenship programs embedded across grade levels.

Portrait of a Graduate

- Grounded in four pillars: Collaboration & Communication, Critical & Creative Thinking, Citizenship, and Culture.
- Reflects FourC's history of fostering students' input and authorship as global citizens.
- Designed collaboratively with educators, leaders, and community.
- Graduates are bilingual, critical, and empathetic learners who value their own and others' cultures.

Portrait to Impact

- Students are accepted into international universities & global projects.
- Annual social service trips and local community initiatives.
- Bilingual proficiency fosters authentic communication & intercultural understanding.
- Learning showcases highlight authorship, creativity, and problem-solving.
- Families recognize FourC nurtures lifelong learners beyond bilingualism.