When facing complex problems, superintendents turn to their peers for expert advice, insight and more. School Administrator is where they will find answers that do not appear elsewhere.

See the timely editorial that will be widely read and shared:

Editorial Highlights for May’s “Assessing Student Performance” include:

- Thought Leadership Series: A conversation with author Marcus Buckingham, a renowned business consultant and global researcher, on employee performance.
- The Portrait of a Graduate: A look at the most distinctive aspects of the district’s assessment system that supports personalized, student-centered learning.
- Grading Students in the Midst of Pandemic/The author of Making Grades Matter explores the benefits to “no zero” and other modified grading considerations.
- Four Actions That Will Doom Your District’s Student Grading Reforms/A leading expert reveals some lessons from school districts’ unsuccessful grading efforts.
- Are Your Grading Practices Legally Sound?/Two professors team up on how to avoid entanglements when grades are challenged.

Ad Deadline: March 10

Contact Kathy Sveen TODAY at ksveen@smithbucklin.com. She can create a program to stretch your budget and meet your specific needs. Ask her about E-blasts, digital edition, web and more!!

- Gain facetime with 20,000+ superintendents and district-level leaders when you advertise.
- 89% of School Administrator readers are involved in district purchases
- 92% of school district decisions/purchased take place in district offices, led by superintendents (Even if now those are virtual.)

Coming in JUNE: Health and Self-Care