Arlington Public Schools announces an opening for Director of Student Services. This is a twelve-month position, Grade P-16, on the administrative and supervisory salary scale with a salary range of $96,814 to $132,498 (2015-2016 salary schedule).

Distinguishing Features of Work

The Director of Student Services directs the provision of school counseling, psychological, social work and substance abuse services to schools; serves as Section 504 Officer; provides oversight of school counseling program activities; supervises homeless services activities; and coordinates maintenance of related student records. The Director participates on various school district committees and school-county partnerships.

The Director of Student Services works under the general supervision of the Assistant Superintendent of Student Services and Special Education, with work reviewed in terms of efficient and effective operation of the department and compatibility with established goals, objectives, policies, regulations, and laws. The Director is responsible for supervising the psychologists, social workers, substance abuse counselors and administrative assistant staff.

Minimum Education, Training, and Experience Requirements

- Possession of a Master’s Degree in psychology, counseling or social work, and considerable and progressively more responsible experience as a school psychologist, social worker or school counselor, including experience in a supervisory or administrative capacity.
- Postgraduate Professional License with endorsements in a student service related field, and in administration or supervision.
- Experienced and/or licensed to provide clinical supervision (preferred).

Please click on the “Apply Today” link of our website to view the entire job description and for instructions on how to apply: www.apsva.us/careers

Arlington Public Schools instills a love of learning in its students and prepares them to be responsible and productive global citizens. Arlington Public Schools is a diverse and inclusive school community, committed to academic excellence and integrity. We provide instruction in a caring, safe and healthy learning environment, responsive to each student, in collaboration with families and the community.

The Arlington Public Schools serves the citizens of Arlington, Virginia’s geographically smallest county, located across the Potomac River from the District of Columbia. We educate one of the nation’s most diverse and sophisticated student populations – our more than 25,000 students come from around the world and speak more than 81 different languages. APS operates more than 38 schools and programs. We serve our students with a range of programs designed to meet individual student needs.

It is the policy of the Arlington School Board, as stated in Policy 35-4.4, Employee Relations – Equal Employment Opportunity - that “Employment opportunities shall not be restricted, abridged or otherwise adversely affected on the basis of race, national origin, creed, color, religion, gender, age, economic status, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status, genetic information, gender identity or expression, and/or disability.”