ALBEMARLE COUNTY, VA
A great place to live and work

- Serves more than 13,200 students in Albemarle County, Virginia
- Highlighted as one of the nation’s top places to raise a family, according to Forbes magazine
- Ranked in 2015 by Niche as one of the top five school divisions in Virginia, as well as in the top two percent of all school divisions in the nation
- Home of Virginia’s Superintendent of the Year
- Recognized nationally for STEM programs
- Featured by the Virginia School Boards Association for Monticello High School’s makerspace in Showcases for Success
- Member of EdLeader 21 and League of Innovative Schools

2016-2017 School Year

Thank you for your interest in serving as a building-level leader in Albemarle County Public Schools. We are currently accepting applications for Screening Interviews for anticipated vacancies for Principals and Assistant Principals for the 2016-2017 school year.

Application Requirements
The following are all required for consideration to participate in a Screening Interview for all applicants seeking positions as a Principal or Assistant Principal.

- Resume
- Letter of Interest/Cover Letter
- Philosophy Statement – The Role of a Principal in a School
- Link to Electronic Multimedia Portfolio

Who May Apply
All applicants must be hold (or be eligible by June 30, 2016) a Virginia teaching license with an endorsement in Administration and Supervision PK-12.

To learn more about Albemarle County Public Schools please visit, http://www.edutopia.org/school/albemarle-county-public-schools; to apply visit www.albemarle.org/jobs.