

Frequently Asked Questions

How might I get published in the magazine?

School Administrator welcomes submissions for feature articles, op-ed columns, letters to the editor and practical how-to articles if they offer a fresh perspective and are on a topic of interest to school superintendents and other members of the school leadership team.

Please consider the author guidelines for length and tone, and whether we have recently covered your topic by reviewing past issues and our editorial calendar.

With our small editorial staff, we can only respond to phone calls and e-mail queries of topics that we find of interest.

Can I subscribe to School Administrator magazine?

School Administrator is one of the key benefits of membership in AASA and is not available by subscription. For information on joining AASA, please visit the membership page or call membership services at 703-875-0748.

How do I change my mailing address?

Log in to <http://my.aasa.org/> and update your member profile by clicking on "My Account" and then "Profile." Use the pencil icons to edit any information. If you do not know your username and password, please contact AASA membership services at 703-528-0748 or membership@aasa.org. You may also fax your request to 703-841-1543. Include a photocopy of your current mailing label and let us know when your new address is effective.

May I purchase additional copies of School Administrator?

Yes. Simply download the order form and send the completed form with payment to Juli Valentine, senior editorial assistant.

- Single copies cost $9 for AASA members (includes $5 shipping and handling within the United States) and $10 for nonmembers. Back issues are available for the past year; inquire about older issues.

Contact Jacqueline at jhyman@aasa.org or call 703-875-0707 with questions. Please allow 2-3 weeks for regular delivery.

Can you e-mail me a past article?

Most of our editorial content, dating back to 1997, is available for free in our online HTML archives. For a small fee, AASA magazine articles can be retrieved through several document delivery services:

Cengage (www.gale.com)

EBSCO (www.epnet.com)

ProQuest (www.proquest.com)

Microform and microfiche are available from ProQuest (800-521-0600). Amazon.com has also made several articles available for a fee.

How do I obtain reprints?

We can provide a cost estimate for reprints of an article in the magazine, either in full color or black and white. The minimum quantity is 25 copies. A regular schedule takes 2-3 weeks. Rush orders take 7-10 days. For more information, visit our Reprints and Permissions page or contact jhyman@aasa.org.

How do I obtain copyright permission for an article?

School Administrator retains copyright on nearly all articles that we publish. We limit copyright permission to two articles (or fewer) from any one issue.

Please explain briefly how you plan to use the article(s), how many copies you plan to make and whether you will be charging for them. Be sure to provide the name of the publication, month and year of the magazine, and the title and author of the article(s) requested. Please allow a week's response time. For more information, visit our Reprints and Permissions page or contact jhyman@aasa.org.
